PLAINTIFF'S OPPOSITION TO DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE AN ANSWER TO COMPLAINT AND REQUEST FOR CLERK TO ENTER DEFAULT OF DEFENDANTS AND SUPPORTING DECLARATION OF MICHAEL TRACY

Plaintiff, David Zaitzeff, submits the following opposition and also requests the clerk to enter the default of Defendants in this matter, pursuant to Rule 55, for failing to defend or otherwise answer.

1. Defendant has not offered any good cause as to why they should be granted a total of 5 months to answer the complaint.

This case was filed on May 2, 2008. Defendants were served on May 12, 2008 and filed a Motion to Dismiss or alternately a Motion to Transfer on May 21, 2008. Their Motion to Dismiss was 7 pages long and included 30 pages of attached exhibits. In filing the motion, Defendants violated California Central District Local Rule 7-3 that required parties to engage in a meet-and-confer prior to filing motions. See Exhibit A, attached hereto.

Defendants Motion to Dismiss was denied by the Court. However, Defendants Motion to Transfer was granted. The Order was entered on June 23, 2008. As such, Defendants had 10 days from that date within which to file an answer. Fed. R. Civ. Proc. 12(a)(4)(A). Defendants have failed to file an answer or otherwise respond to the complaint and are now in default in this matter.

Defendants admit that they know they are in default and they refuse to file and answer. Instead, Defendants bring this motion to grant them an additional 60 days to answer. Their motion is based on their unsupported allegation that one of their many attorneys has unspecified “arbitration and appellate commitments” that would prevent the attorney from defending the case in the time required by the Rules. The workload of an attorney is not a reasonable grounds for not filing an answer. Pioneer Inv. Serv. Co. v. Brunswick Assocs. P'ship, 507 U.S. 380, 395 (1993). In addition, counsel for Defendants should review the Committee Notes of Local Rule 83.51.3 which states that “A lawyer’s work load should be controlled so that each matter can be handled adequately.” If counsel can not adequately defend this case, it is manifestly unfair that Plaintiff be the one that suffers.

Counsel for Defendants has also offered no reason why Defendants were able to file a Motion to Dismiss only 9 days after they were served, but are unable to file an answer for over 3 months and then need an additional 2 months. Such a delay hinders this lawsuit and will make it impossible for this Court to successfully hold an initial status conference in a timely manner, as outlined in this Court’s Standing Orders for Initial Status Conference.

Plaintiff is unduly prejudiced by any delay in answering by Defendants. This case is a claim for minimum wage payments. Mr. Zaitzeff has previously introduced evidence that Defendants paid him sub-poverty level wages. If Defendants promptly and truthfully answer the complaint, it will greatly streamline the case because most of the issues will be eliminated by their admissions of the allegations in the complaint. If Defendants decide to deny the allegations in the complaint, then Mr. Zaitzeff needs to immediately begin investigation and discovery into those matters so that he can promptly bring a Motion for Summary Judgment. As such, Defendants delay tactics have forced Mr. Zaitzeff into the position that he can begin investigating all the allegations of the complaint and risk wasting his time on allegations that are admitted by Defendants in their answer or he can not investigate anything in hopes that Defendants will truthfully admit all of the allegations, but will be months behind in his investigation if they do not. This is severe prejudice, and this Court should not countenance Defendants delay tactics.

2. Defendants' motion essentially granted themselves a de facto extension of time to answer and such conduct should not be permitted.

Defendants filing of this motion essentially granted them a de facto extension of time to answer. Defendants are already in default and it would have been proper for Plaintiff to simply request that a default be entered. However, counsel for Plaintiff, as a courtesy, notified counsel for Defendants that they were in default and that an answer needed to be filed. This courtesy was repaid by Defendants bringing a motion that essentially precludes Plaintiff from taking the default and thus extends their time to answer no matter what the ruling of this court in this motion.

Defendants are essentially relying on the sympathies of this Court in a belief that a judge would not order the entry of default when a party in default has requested an extension to answer. However, Defendants have cited no authority that requires a judge to have sympathy on attorneys who willfully violate the Rules. In fact, just the opposite is the law. Canfield v. Van Atta Buick/GMC Truck, 127 F.3d 248, 249 (1997). Given that Defendants were already 30 days late in filing an answer before they brought the request for an extension, there is no reason for this Court to make an exception to the Rules. As such, Plaintiff requests that Defendants' gamesmanship be put to an end. Defendants are in default and Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court recognize that fact by entering default.

5. The Motion to Dismiss was denied in an order dated June 23, 2008.

6. Defendants have not filed an answer or other responsive pleading since June 23, 2008.

7. The applicable time limit for responding to the complaint has expired. Under Rule 12(a)(4)(A) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Defendants were required to plead to the complaint by July 7, 2008 but have failed to do so. The time to plead or otherwise respond to the complaint has not been extended by any agreement of the parties or any order of the Court.

I declare under penalty of perjury, under the laws of the United States that the foregoing is true and correct.
